Staff Descriptions

Leaders – You! All adults who come with the students to camp. We have been working all year to pre- pare for this week, but you are the key person the students will relate to when they return home.

Planning Team – consists of members from many churches who volunteer their time and effort to design and implement all that it takes to make this conference happen. Each has a specific task and role yet all share in making your conference week the best that it can be. They are praying for you and are available to help you in any way they can.

Work Crew – High school/College students who will work around the camp. They come to serve the youth and leaders of the camp. Some of the Work Crew will be responsible for setting up, serving, and cleaning up at mealtimes. Others will be responsible for setting up and breaking down of the stage and all recreation events that take place during the week. They also help with skits and small groups.

Staff at NorthBay – These people work at the camp and are there to help our camp run smoothly. Please remind the youth that we are guests at NorthBay, so please show respect to all onsite staff. Any problems that arise should be brought to the attention of Kristin Franke (609-216-6006) or JD Garris (240-678-8681).

Sexual Misconduct Policy

We recognize that all individuals are created in the image of God, and should be treated with the utmost respect and dignity as His image-bearers. It is in that spirit that certain guidelines have been established in order to assure that everyone's rights are protected, as well as the reputation of Youth Conference Ministries (YCM).

- At no time will counselors be in compromising situations with kids.
- There should be absolutely NO physical contact that can be interpreted as sexual advances made toward any camper or any conference participant.
- Adult counselors should not walk unaccompanied at night with campers of the opposite sex.
- Adult counselors should not involve themselves in in-depth counseling with campers of the opposite sex in secluded areas.
- These guidelines state clearly that there should be no inappropriate sexual conduct between counselor and campers, counselors and counselors, and campers and campers.

When adult counselors are notified of inappropriate conduct by anyone, they must immediately report it to TGE/FITS conference directors and notify the YCM Home Office. Since the person in question may be a minor, state laws will be followed.

TGE: Northeast Cell Phone Policy

While we leave the specific instructions up to individual church leaders, cell phones will not be allowed during worship sessions, small group times, rec times, or free time activities. We believe that practicing physical presence – away from screens and the temptation to be in contact with “back home” – is a way of showing Christian hospitality to those whom we came to camp with.

Leaders should make every effort to not use their cell phones around their students, with the same intention of giving full attention to the youth whom they are serving.

TGE: Northeast Clothing/Swimsuit Policy

Each day at The Great Escape will be full of adventurous activities, times of worship, and opportunities to grow in Christian faith and fellowship. Students' apparel should reflect those goals. We look to church leaders to guide their students in wearing appropriate clothing and swimwear. For example, guidelines might include:

- Avoiding swimwear that is too revealing
- Choosing shorts that don't reveal underwear (e.g., too saggy) or ride up while wearing a harness on adventure activities.
- Wearing shirts that are appropriate for sports and running games.

Activity Descriptions

Counselor Worship:

This is a time for all leaders to get together and have time for themselves. We will sing a few worship songs followed by a short talk. This time is also for leaders to get updated on the day's events, such as what we are doing for recreation, what tournaments will be taking place, and also a time for sharing praises and concerns that might come up.

Small Groups:

Small groups are intended for the students to spend some time talking with their peers about issues raised during the Morning Meeting. Each group will have approximately 10 students with 1 to 2 adults. The leaders will be given conversation starters to help lead these times.

BTT's or Bed Time Talks:

These times are meant for church groups to meet together and take place following the Evening meeting and Aftermath. It gives the students and their leaders to break down what was discussed during the meeting.

Morning and Evening Meetings:

Twice a day all leaders and students will gather together in the theater for a time of singing, worship, skits, and talks.

Large Group Recreation:

This is where everyone from the camp gathers at the rec. fields for fun and competitive games (mainly fun and silly).

Tournaments:

During the afternoon on a few days we will be having tournaments. Specific tournaments may change depending on facility availability, costs, and weather, but past tournaments have included volleyball, basketball, soccer, and ultimate Frisbee. If you have a smaller church, we will make sure that we partner you up with another church so that everyone one can play if they want to.

Aftermath

A last chance to blow off steam in the evenings with some all camp games, and get truly tired before bedtime!

Leader Preparation

Counselors are the key to a successful conference. The success of our conference is in the success of your ministry after you get back home. Adult training begins now! Spend time with your team of adult leaders.

Several areas you should cover together are:

Counseling – Each adult should be trained in how to lead a person to Christ. Knowledge of several key verses is helpful. Review good listening skills and communications skills.

Discipline – Make sure that all of your counselors understand the rules and expectations of the conference. Discuss how to handle different situations in this area so everyone will be of one accord.

Group Leader Expectations – Make sure that every adult with you understands clearly their role at the conference.

All counselors need to know the daily schedule that is listed in this handbook. There are times when leaders may need to be in different places, so you may want to make assignments before you arrive.

Pray – spend time in prayer for your leaders; they will play a key role in your week with The Great Escape. Also encourage your leaders to pray for each student that will be attending this conference.

Tips on How to Lead a Small Group

1. Establish an atmosphere of acceptance. Most teenagers are afraid to express their opinions because they are afraid of being ridiculed, laughed at, or considered dumb by their peers. They need to feel secure before they share their true feelings and beliefs.
2. Affirm all legitimate expressions of opinion from your group members. Make certain everyone knows his or her comments and contributions are appreciated and important.
3. Discourage the students from thinking of you as the “authority” on the subject.
4. Actively listen to each person. God gave you one mouth and two ears. Good discussion leaders know how to listen.
5. Do not force anyone to talk. Invite them, but do not insist they comment. Each member should have the right to “pass.”
6. Do not take sides during discussion. You will possibly have differing opinions in the group. This is very stimulating to a discussion, but do not make the mistake of agreeing with one side or the other. Instead encourage both sides to think through their positions and to defend their points of view.
7. Do not allow one person-including yourself-to monopolize the discussion. Try to encourage equal participation from all the students. And remember that it is the kids turn to talk. It is not a good group if you do all the talking!
8. Arrange seating to encourage discussion. It is best to sit in a circle with everyone at the same eye level.
9. Don't be intimidated by silence. Let the students think about the question.
10. Stay on Topic. It is common for a discussion to go off on tangents. If the tangent is fairly close to what you're talking about, see it through for a little bit. Otherwise, tell the group that you can talk about that topic later, but for now you need to finish your discussion of the current topic.
11. Ask open-ended questions. When asking questions of students ask questions that require more than a one-word response or yes or no. Ask for their opinion or how they feel about something. Ask questions about how or why things are the way they are.
12. Go from general to specific. Kids will be more willing to talk about people in general at first and then talk about how the topic affects them personally.

Sharing Your Faith

The Roman Road to Salvation

Romans 3:23

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

Romans 6:23

We must realize that our sins separate us from God!

Romans 5:8

God so loved us that even while we were yet sinners He died for us!

Romans 10:9-10

That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

Romans 10:13

Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Prayer to Receive Jesus

Lord Jesus, I know that I am a sinner and need Your forgiveness. I was made for You, but I've been living for me. I want to begin a relationship with You now. I believe that You died in my place, to pay the penalty for my sin, and rose again for my salvation. I want to turn from my sins. I now invite You to come into my heart and life as my Lord and Savior.
