

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

Youth Conference Ministries camps, The Great Escape, Fun in the Son and Polar Plunge, host several hundred students each year. To ensure that each student remains safe and has the most meaningful camp experience possible, students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is thoughtful, safe, respectful of themselves and others and the space around them, and above all in a manner that reflects Jesus Christ. The following are YCM's expectations of the students who attend YCM camps:

- Students must treat others with kindness, respect and in the same manner in which he or she wishes to be treated.
- YCM has a zero tolerance policy. Abuse, harassment, bullying, fighting, sexual promiscuity, or other such activity is not permitted in any way, shape or form.
- Weapons, drugs, alcohol, illegal substances, inappropriate materials, and illicit or inappropriate content is strictly prohibited.
- Students are not allowed in cabins/dorms belonging to another group.
- Male students are not allowed in female students' rooms.
- Female students are not allowed in male students' rooms.
- Students should be in groups of three (3) or more. They should not be one on one with each other or be alone.
- In respect for all and the entire camp community, we encourage all students to wear appropriate swimwear to all water activities.
- Students must respect YCM and venue property and not deliberately cause damage.
- Students are expected to be respectful of all authority such as YCM staff, venue staff, adult leaders, and lifeguards. Following their rules and instructions at all times is for students' well being and safety.
- Students are expected to follow all YCM and event venue rules and regulations.
- Students are expected to be present at all scheduled events and sessions.
- Students must adhere to the cell phone policy set forth by the camp and/or their leader.
- Church Group Leaders are responsible for monitoring and enforcing these expectations within their group. Church groups are responsible for any damages or issues caused by prohibited items, student behavior, etc at camp.

This list of expectations is general and not exhaustive. Any student not agreeing to or following these expectations may be subject to disciplinary action which may include but is not limited to: reporting legal issues to the proper authorities or being sent home at parent's expense.
